

A 5-Day trip in London

Day 1 :

You'll arrive at st Pancras station, in the north of London. You will quickly see that there are a lot of things to do in the city ! Why not go to London zoo ? This is one of the oldest zoo in the world, it contains 150 species of animals. This is the first zoo that opened a reptile house, an insect house, a public aquarium and a children's zoo. To go there, you'll have to take the tube to Camden town station. For lunch, what about eating a typical English meal ? Fish and chips ? But don't worry, if you don't like English food you'll be able to eat a Chinese meal in China town ! For the afternoon, if you want to do some shopping, you should go to Oxford Street . This is a very busy street because this is the most famous street for shopping. After this you will be able to get some rest in your hotel.

Day 5 :

You'll have to bring your lunch because you will have a boat trip all day long ! You'll take the boat in front of the Tate Britain and you will go up the Thames. You'll see a lot of historic monuments and a guide will explain the story of each one. When the boat trip is over, you'll have to take a taxi and go back to st Pancras station.

We hope that you'll enjoy this trip, do not hesitate to call us for another trip !

Day 2 :

After breakfast, you'll have to take the Tube to Westminster station, and then walk to the London Eye. You'll have a 30 minutes tour to see how beautiful the town is. It may seem long, but it flies when you see how interesting the buildings are. When you are back on earth, you will walk to the Aquarium of London named Sealife. You won't have to hurry because the queue is usually long, but it is worth it : this aquarium contains 600 kinds of fish!

For lunch you will eat in a restaurant nearby, and then you will have a double decker bus tour (in Whitehall, Piccadilly and Victoria street.) You will be able to see Buckingham Palace !

Day 3 :

You are a cinema fan ? So you should go the Warner bros studio to see the Making of Harry Potter ! You'll see the film shooting locations and the costumes of the characters. You'll know all about the best-known English movie ! You'll have to buy a sandwich in a bakery to eat in Hyde Park. This is one of the biggest park in London, and maybe you'll be lucky enough to see squirrels !

Day 4 :

You'll have breakfast in a cafe, and after that you will take the underground to go to St Paul's station in the City. You will be able to visit the City, but walking in this part of the town is complicated because this a very busy street too, so let's hire a bike ! You'll learn more about the leading financial center and its many banks ! You will emerge yourself into the world of traders ! You'll eat in a restaurant, and after lunch you will ride to the Globe Theatre to see a cult play named Macbeth. And when the play is over, you'll have a guided tour of the theatre to learn more about the fire that devastated it in 1666.
