

5-day trip in London

1stDay : After a night on the ferry, you'll arrive in Portsmouth in the early morning where you'll take the National Express to London. You'll then go to Covent Garden to a comfortable Travelodge where you'll be able to drop off your luggage and freshen up. You'll have lunch in a typical London Pub while watching the street entertainers. You'll then take the Tube to Baker Street. From there you'll go to Madame Tussaud's. It's full of waxworks of famous people like the Royal Family, Johnny Depp, Marilyn Monroe, Rihanna, Presidents,... It's so realistic ! After that great experience you'll take the Tube back to Covent and try some exotic, spicy cuisine in an Indian restaurant. You'll then walk back to your hotel and enjoy a good night sleep.

2nd Day : The next morning you won't have to get up early, and then you'll get to enjoy the « eat as much as you like » buffet in the hotel. After that filling breakfast, a bus will be provided for you to go to the Warner Bros Harry Potter Studio tour ! A packed lunch will be provided. It's the biggest Harry Potter Studio in Europe and only one of two places where you can buy the famous Butterbeer ! You'll be able to see all your favourite characters and maybe buy their wands ! It's such a magical attraction everything is so realistic ! And there are so many things to see ! After that attraction the same bus will take you to Chinatown where you'll be able to taste the delicious Pekin Duck ! You'll then take a rickshaw (it's one of the cheapest ways to go around London and it's a very fun way) back to your hotel.

3rd Day : You might think this trip can't get any better, think again ! The next day you'll have an Open top Bus tour of London. You'll see Buckingham Palace, if you're lucky you'll see the changing of the guards ! You'll also see Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament, the Thames, the Tower of London, Tower Bridge, the Gherkin, the Walkie Talkie, the Shard, the City Hall and so much more !

For lunch you'll have a beautiful picnic in Hyde Park, it's one of the biggest parks in London ! You'll then take the Tube to your hotel and get ready to go and see a great west-end show : « The play that goes wrong ». It's so realistic and it's hilarious ! For dinner you'll go to a fancy restaurant. You'll then take a taxi back to your hotel.

4thDay : If you love animals you'll be delighted with this attraction : you'll take the Tube to the London zoo, it's one of the biggest zoo in England ! There are so many different species of animals, it's amazing ! There are lots of different types of monkeys, big cats, birds (penguins, flamingos,...), insects,... You might even see the animals being fed ! After this incredible visit to the Zoo you'll have a quick lunch (a packed lunch will be provided) and go to Piccadilly Circus by Tube. You'll be able to admire Nelson's column and go to the National Gallery. You'll see so many amazing paintings that will take your breath away ! You'll then go on a riverboat to see London by night and eat a wonderful, fancy dinner ! After that amazing experience you'll go back to your hotel by cab.

5th Day : Sadly the fifth day will be the last ... But we still have a wonderful idea for you ! To see London one last time, you'll go in the London Eye. It's the best view of London and the most amazing ! Then you'll take The National Express to Portsmouth, where you'll take the ferry back home.

