

A trip in London

First day :

As soon as you arrive in London, after the boat and the taxi, you should take a break in Hyde Park. It's really sweet and full of squirrels ! After this little break, you'll go to the south of Hyde Park to the National History Museum. On your road, you will pass next to the Albert Memorial (It's a really big monument!)

After this visit, you can go to this little restaurant : The Mandarin Kitchen, It's just next to Hyde Park. And then you'll head to the Queen's Gallery. To get there, you will walk from Hyde Park to Green Park, and see Buckingham Palace.

To finish this first day in London, you can eat or go and sit in Hyde Park.

For accommodation, you will find a great hotel in front of Green Park on Piccadilly Street.

Second day :

For this next day in London, you won't have to get up early ! Because you will only have to visit St James Palace.

You'll continue your trip by visiting the National Gallery. It's such a good art gallery ! And there is so much to see ! And after that you can walk in the street, in Trafalgar Square, see Nelson's Column, and keep walking in Whitehall,... until you get to the Houses of Parliament and Big Ben.

After this sweet day you can go and sleep in a BnB close to the Thames.

Third day :

To start this day well, you should begin by a walk to Westminster and visit it.

After this morning's visit you can have a sandwich close to the Thames and then visit the Tate Gallery, which is the best place if you like Turner ! After this, you can take a taxi or a bus to get closer to Tower Bridge. And you will find a hotel around.

Fourth day :

For today, you will have to wear trainers because you're going to walk a lot ! You will start by crossing Tower Bridge, which is going to give you a beautiful view of London ! You will keep walking to the the Tower of London and then walk back until you see St Paul's Cathedral. It's so big !

After this walk, if you're too tired , you can take the underground to Covent Garden, or keep walking until you get there. You can eat there, do some shopping, and continue your shopping in Oxford Street. In the afternoon you can go to the British Museum which is just next to Oxford Street.
